FREE ELECTRONIC NOTICING OF ORDERS AND COURT NOTICES
NOW AVAILABLE FOR DEBTORS

DEBTOR ELECTRONIC NOTICING (DeBN)

DeBN is a FREE and voluntary service that allows individual debtors to request delivery of court notices and orders from the bankruptcy court by email instead of U.S. mail.

Advantages of DeBN

- There is no charge to view or save emailed orders and court notices.
- Orders and court notices are emailed the same day the court generates them.

How to Sign Up

- Debtors must complete, sign, and file a Debtor's Electronic Noticing Request (DeBN) form (activation form).
- The activation form may be filed in person at the Bankruptcy Court Clerk's office (photo ID required) or mailed to the court with a copy of the debtor's driver's license or other Government issued ID.
- If applicable, debtor's attorney can electronically file the activation form.

Access the DeBN activation form and information by visiting the DeBN page on the Court's website.
